Miracle of Christmas

Sight & Sound Brings Its Runaway Hit to Branson's Ozark Mountain Christmas—

Sight & Sound Theatres® of Lancaster, Pennsylvania is bringing another of their world famous Bible epics to Branson for the Ozark Mountain Christmas season!

As a follow-up, (or one could theologially say “sequel”) to their spectacular Noah: The Musical—Miracle of Christmas comes to Branson after eleven smash hit seasons on the East Coast where it was enjoyed by millions.

Like Noah, this promises to be a colossal production, complete with flying angels, sheep and camels, with Bethlehem streets, throngs of worshipers, kings and priests, soldiers and dancers. The story portrays the extraordinary journey of Mary and Joseph and the miraculous birth of our Savior.

Show guests are encouraged to arrive early for the “festivities”, where they are invited to visit with shepherds and live animals—then sample an array of seasonal treats in an atmosphere of elaborate lights, decorations and a 30-foot-high “angel” tree!

Best to make plans now; this is surely a red-hot item for the Ozark Mountain Christmas season and tickets should go fast.

Noah: The Musical will be playing at Branson's Sight & Sound Theatre thru October 17, ('09), with Miracle of Christmas playing October 31 thru December 30.

It's Season 2 in Branson for Sight & Sound's Massive Bible Musical a menagerie of live animals that would please P.T. Barnum and a cast staging scenes as grand as a Cecil B. deMille classic—with music and dance that could captivate Broadway and a message of judgment and salvation that confronts the heart with all the power of thunder and lightning.

It's a show that entertains, thrills and delights all ages—yet the message it bears from our Creator carries that weighty, tangible force of life-giving presence that only He Himself can perform. It's a message from Him to each one of us. This telling of it is an experience too urgent, too powerful—and even too precious to miss.

Counselors are standing by after every performance for all those ready and willing to respond to God's message of redemption, a message heard loud and clear in this depiction of the Noah's Ark saga. For any friends or loved ones who haven't yet made it to “the ark”—use this show to help. That's what it's here for.

Read our complete review of Noah: The Musical in the show section of our website.

It's the story of the most cataclysmic event in our earth's history—and it's presented in jaw-dropping proportions on one of the largest stages in our hemisphere.

Noah: The Musical is the “Goliath-sized” production presented on a 300-foot wrap-around stage four stories high. The sweeping Bible epic that chronicles our past, present and future is portrayed by means of Disney-type animatronics, Stephen Spielberg caliber special effects,
